Report

Cyber Society of India observed 'Computer Security Day' on 30-Nov-2017, at Chennai.

The programme was attended by 56 invitees comprising of CySI Members, Senior Citizens, Professionals, former Bankers and other members of public from the cross section of the society.

CySI President Mr. V. Kapaleeswaran, welcoming the eminent speakers and the audience explained the activities of CySI and underlined the focus of Computer Security Day as 'sharing of knowledge and experiences to enable the common man to strengthen their resilience to recover from disasters'.

Delivering his Keynote Address Mr. M.S.Sundararajan, Former Chairman & Managing Director of Indian Bank, briefed the gathering on Cyber Security Threats & outlook and also walked them through key challenges in Financial sectors and how they are being handled.

Delivering his special address on 'Computer Security- Digital Disruption, a New Normal', Mr. K. Vijayakumar, Deputy General Manager, Corporate Security, TATA Communications walked the audience through Digital disruptions with examples, current state and the suggested mitigation acts to counter them.

The knowledgeable audience that were in attendance despite an inclement weather quizzed the eminent speakers on their queries relating to their day to day activities and the Question Answer session was made interesting with appropriate clarifications from Mr. K Vijay Kumar. The satisfaction of having achieved the basic goals of 'Computer Security Day' was evident when the audience were reluctant to disburse, for the day.

The event concluded with the Mr. C. Badri, Secretary-In-Charge, CySI thanking all involved for an interactive meeting.

It was a grand show considering the fact that it was a working day, similar programmes being conducted by various organizations in the city and more importantly despite heavy rains. CySI is thankful to all those who were present despite the hardships.

The following CySI Members were present, for the event:

M/s. V Kapaleeswaran, Balu Swaminathan, C Badri, Prem Anand, Ramesh Bhasyam, Azagappa Raju, V Rajendran, K.Srinivasan, U Prakasam, Dr. Ramamurthy, V.Visalakshi, Kamala Mahadevan, Karthikeyan Natarajan & Lavanya Mantrala.

CySI Members M/s Shanker Kumar, K. Ravichander, P.V. Padmanabhan & V.S.Soorian communicated their inability to attend due to personal & pressing reasons.

CySI would also like to place their appreciation to Mr. Balu Swaminathan for roping in about 10 advocates as attendees for the meeting. CySI expresses its special thanks to Mr .D Murali, who was quick to trigger the tweets live , as the program was in progress.
